“With sincere appreciation, I thank our Academy board members and Foundation trustees for their steadfast leadership in governance, policy, and finances, especially during this new world shaped by the COVID-19 pandemic. Together with our Advocacy, Member Engagement, Practice Management, Professional Development, and Student and Resident Education committees, more than 100 volunteer leaders are advancing the priorities of Michigan Academy of Family Physicians and Family Medicine Foundation of Michigan. Our sights are focused on the year ahead and the robust agenda before us,” said Ms. Ketola.
