

MAFP Seeks Delegates for National Conference of Constituency Leaders

Active physician members of MAFP who identify with one of the five-member constituencies represented at AAFP's annual National Conference of Constituency Leaders (international medical graduates, LGBTQ+ physicians or physician allies, minority physicians, new physicians in practice 7 years or less, women physicians)¹ are invited to apply to serve as 2024 delegates. The five selected delegates, appointed by the MAFP Board of Directors, will attend NCCL in Kansas City, MO, April 18-20, 2024. During the conference, delegates will help shape Academy policy through the lens of their constituencies, network with like-minded colleagues from across the country, and develop leadership skills.

Applications are due Nov. 26

.